TOUR ITINERARY –

Friday, April 18, 2008

Rosell Ranch – A western retreat.

A great place for reunions, family gatherings, hunter's lodging, or business meetings. Watch a roping demonstration by a modern day cowboy!

Willow Branch School – A country school.

Learn about the 3 R's, and so much more in one of the last all wooden schools.

Tally Ranch – A James Gang Hideout.

Folklore has it that Jesse James and the gang frequented this ranch in Anderson County.

The Clock Maker – Timeless Treasures.

Myron Harsch shares his favorite past time with you.

The Anderson County Courthouse – Largest building in Anderson County.

It may be just another George Washburn design, but it is uniquely "Anderson County".

Saturday, April 19, 2008

St. John's Hall – Bargains galore!

Browse the discounted treasures during Greeley City Wide Garage Sale Day and take a unique tour of St. John's Church.

1856 Gerth Cabin – Anderson County's link to "Bleeding Kansas". Visit Greeley's most well-known attraction with crafters displaying baskets, benches and quilts.

St. Boniface Church and Carmelite Barn –

A Scipio secret.

Tucked away in Scipio, Kansas, see why this nominee was voted the Architectural Wonder of Anderson County.

Prairie Spirit Rail-Trail –

Kansas' First Rail-Trail.

Enjoy a short stroll on the trail and meet trail manager, Trent McCown.

Garnett Cemetery – Famous people reside here.

This drive-by tour gleans some interesting facts about special people who are laid to rest here, but are not forgotten.
